

Housing

The Basics: Housing

Introduction for the Trainer

Key Content

During this session, participants will learn about the rights and responsibilities that come with renting an apartment or house, and about the proper use of household products and appliances.

Main Messages

In the United States, both tenants and landlords/landladies have rights and responsibilities. When refugees rent an apartment or a house, they must sign an agreement called a lease. In the lease, tenants agree to rent the property for a certain amount of time, pay rent and utilities on time, and maintain the property. Trainers should warn participants that breaking the lease could result in a fine. Refugees are also responsible for managing their own mail and recognizing important letters. If refugees cannot read the mail, they should find someone, such as their case worker/manager, a volunteer, a neighbor, or a friend, to read and explain it to them.

35 minutes

Objectives

Participants will be able to do the following:

- ▶ Describe the importance of paying rent and utilities on time
- ▶ State that tenants and landlords/landladies have rights and responsibilities
- ▶ Discuss the use of basic household products
- ▶ Describe the use of basic household appliances
- ▶ Identify important mail
- ▶ State their address and phone number
- ▶ Describe basic household safety measures and emergency services

Materials

- Housing Posters (included)
- Tape

Key English Vocabulary

- ▶ housing
- ▶ landlord/landlady
- ▶ utilities
- ▶ Is this mail important?

Session Preparation

The trainer should gather, from case workers/managers, the address and phone number of each participant attending the session. As such, if participants do not have this information on hand during the session, it can easily be given to them during the Introductory Exercise.

Hang Housing Posters around the training space.

Trainer's Introduction of Session to Participants

During this session, we will talk about housing in the United States.

Introductory Exercise

Briefly review the key English vocabulary for this plan by saying the first word aloud in English. Participants say the word to a partner, and then all together as a group. Continue in the same way with the rest of the words and the phrase. Throughout the session, emphasize the words as they come up and use the phrase whenever there is an opportunity. If there is time (8 to 10 minutes), use the unit vocabulary found at the end of this unit to help participants better understand key English vocabulary words.

Divide participants into pairs or groups of three. Tell participants that, under normal circumstances, this information should only be shared with people they trust. Ask them to say their addresses and phone numbers to their partner or other group members.

When finished with the activity, remind participants that personal information such as addresses and phone numbers should only be shared with people they trust.

Activity

Pairs or groups visit each Housing Poster and discuss the information being shared on each poster.

When all pairs or groups have visited each Housing Poster, have participants visit the posters as a full group. Ask participants to share what is being described in each picture and clarify any misinformation. Make sure that the key messages are provided. Encourage participants to ask questions as needed.

As a full group, debrief the session using the questions below.

Debriefing Questions

- ▶ What are two of your most important bills regarding housing that you have to pay? [This could include utility bills or rent.] Why is it important to pay them?
- ▶ In the United States, who has rights and responsibilities regarding housing and utilities? [Response: Tenants and landlords/landladies.]

- ▶ What are some basic household products? How should you use them? How would you throw them away when you are finished with them?
  - ▶ What is something you should do to clean your home? What should you do about trash?
  - ▶ What are some appliances in your home? How should you use them?
  - ▶ How can you identify important mail? If you do not understand the mail, what should you do? [Response: Ask your case worker/manager for help.]

Working With Individuals or Very Small Groups

When working with one or two participants, conduct the introductory exercise by asking each participant to tell you her/his address and phone number. During the activity, the trainer should visit the posters with participants and ask them what they see in the posters, clarifying any false information. When finished, debrief the session using the questions provided.

Variations and Considerations

If possible, group participants by language background during the introductory exercise so they can communicate in a common language during the activity discussions.

If needed, use translated versions of the Housing Posters.

When working with a larger group, divide participants into five to seven groups for the activity. Distribute a Housing Poster to each group. (If working with five or six small groups, pair the "Cleaning Products and How to Use Them" poster with the "Cleaning the Bathroom and Kitchen" poster and/or the "Proper Food Storage and Care" poster with the "Common Household Appliances" poster.) Small groups review their assigned Housing Poster and determine the key messages for the poster. Bring the full group together. A spokesperson from each small group introduces their Housing Poster and describes the key messages on the poster.
