

FINANCIAL MILESTONES GAME CARDS

The following cards can be printed and cut out. Each card has a different financial milestone that refugees can experience as a part of resettlement. Providers may elect to only use some of the cards, and/or may make additional cards.

 I arrived to the United States and signed a leasing agreement for my apartment.	I had a headache, so I went to the emergency room. Now I have a very large bill to pay.
My rent is due. It is my first month in the United States. Cash assistance will cover it this time.	I had a job interview and accepted the job offer. It will help me pay my rent next month.
I opened checking and savings accounts at a bank.	I had a job interview, but did not accept the job offer. I need to pay rent in two weeks.
I have arrived to the United States and have been enrolled in a cash assistance program. I do not want to find a job right away.	I have arrived to the United States and have been enrolled in a cash assistance program. I am excited to find a job.
I obtained a credit card. I included money charged on it as expenses in my budget.	I got a new job. I bought a car without consulting my budget. I don't have enough money for car insurance.
I don't have a job. I have signed up to have cable television and internet.	I have many bills, but I only pay my rent.
I have started paying back my IOM travel loan.	I obtained a credit card and charged my full credit limit. I do not have money to pay it back.
My caseworker has informed me that my public benefits will end in a month. I have a job, but according to my budget, I need more income, so I am looking for a second job.	My caseworker has informed me that my public benefits will end. I have a job, but I do not have a budget, so I am not sure if I can cover all my expenses.
I have not paid my rent in two months. I received an eviction notice from my landlord.	I have decided to move to a new city. I do not have any money saved for the move.
I have decided to move to a new city. My lease is ending and I have saved money for the move.	I have been working for a year and I received a promotion and a raise.
I have been working for six months. I have been saving my money, but I am not using a bank. I keep the money in my home.	I have been in the United States for three years and I finished paying my IOM travel loan.

I have been working for a year and I have found a new job that pays more money.

I update my budget monthly and track my expenses.

I have been in the United States for a couple years and I am thinking about going back to school. I want to continue to work part-time.

I have been working for a year and I have saved money to buy a car. I have consulted my budget to make sure I have enough money long-term to pay for the additional expenses.