

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES MATCHING WORKSHEET (PROVIDER VERSION)

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES MATCHING

Instructions: Ask participants to review pictures and identify which are rights and which are responsibilities. Ask follow-up questions and review the main points provided.

Ask: Do you agree or disagree? Religious freedom is a right of everyone in the U.S.

Say: The U.S. Constitution guarantees freedom of religion to everyone. You should be able to practice your faith without fear.

Ask: What is the man doing in the picture? And why?

Say: The man is fastening the child's seatbelt to his children. Children have the right to be safe and protected from harm.

Ask: What's happening in this picture? Who do you think the man is calling?

Say: Someone is breaking into a store, and the man is calling 911. It is your right to seek legal action.

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES MATCHING WORKSHEET (PROVIDER VERSION)

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES MATCHING - U.S. LAWS OVERVIEW VIDEO

Instructions: Ask participants to review images and identify which are rights and which are responsibilities. Ask follow-up questions and review the main points provided.

Ask: What do you see in this picture?

Say: Leaving children unsupervised is considered child neglect. It is illegal to leave children without adult supervision.

Ask: What is the woman doing in the picture? What documents do you need to drive?

Say: The woman is driving a car. You need a driver's license to drive a car.

Ask: What is the person purchasing in the picture?

Say: He is purchasing alcohol. It is illegal to purchase or sell alcohol to people under the age of 21. The store manager will ask to see your ID card to confirm that you can purchase alcohol legally.

Ask: What do you think is happening in the picture? What are people doing?

Say: This picture represents violent or threatening behavior. Harm could be verbal, physical, or sexual. It is illegal to harm anyone, and consequences include fines and jail and can affect immigration status.